Civic Service Union 52 Negotiating Committee for the City of Edmonton Bargaining Unit –

Information taken from the January 2012 Minutes for the CSU 52 General Meeting

From the January 2012 CSU 52 General Minutes:

We know our members are anxious about the negotiations and we are working towards the best possible agreement for our members. We met with the mediator on December 12 & 14th and have not met since, due to the holidays. We are waiting for more dates to be set with the mediator. Mediation is not a binding decision; they are there to bring both sides to the table to come up with a resolution that is mutually acceptable to both sides. If no agreement can be reached with the mediator, there is a 14 day “cooling off” period. At this time the committee would come to the membership for direction.

In solidarity,

Therese Doucet (City of Edmonton Bargaining Representative)
